Summer may have bid adieu, but these spas by Aquatica Bath are ready to chase away the chill. Joseph Burnstein, founder and managing director of Aquatica Bath, shares the inspiration behind the company's recent launches:

Aquatica Bath's Tessera Spa

"The Tessera spa was crafted to be a Zen-like, minimalist experience while maintaining the Aquatica Bath level of high-performance that enables users to enjoy a perfectly luxe bathing experience."

Aquatica Bath's Wave Spa

"Wave is the brainchild of international designer Marc Sadler and as might be expected from the high technology and gorgeous design, it totally raises the standard of a luxury home spa."

Aquatica Bath's Fusion Cube Spa

"Our goal for the Fusion Cube Spa was for it to be genuinely therapeutic from the microjets and air bolsters concealed within the walls. Among these unique characteristics of the Fusion hydromassage bathtub and spa series is the distinctive, overflowing Infinity style rim, creating a seemingly edgeless water surface."
